VOLUME XVII

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY MAY 6, 1914.

NUMBER 27

Come to the Court House.

The meeting of the Commercial Club Friday night is for the purpose of developing a plan to secure a railroad for this town and county, and we trust that not only every member of the organization, but every citizen in and near Columbia will be present. We have reasons to believe that the road can be built without burdening the people of this community, and if we fail to secure the road, it will be our fault. The position of the L. & N. Road is now known and will be given in the meeting Thursday night. To allow this opportunity to pass would be a serious mistake: to grasp it would bring developments that would surprise the most enthusiastic. We can get substantial help, and while this help is offered is the time to act. The advance in values, the broadening of opportunity, and the expansion of business will all be permanent and will pay 100 per cent. on the investment inside of five years. No one man, nor no few men here can secure the building of the road, but if we all get together we can build it and reap a harvest in the development that will follow. We trust that the court-house will be crowded on the night set for this meeting and that we will all see the importance of immediate action. Don't allow bad weather or tired feeling to keep you away. Come and let us all pull together and we will get the road.

Not Dead.

We were very glad surprised last Wednesday afternoon upon receiving a letter from Dr. C. A. Cox, Jonesboro, Tenn. Six or eight months ago some one reported to this community that he had crossed the divide, and as he was in very delicate health the last time he was here, the report was taken as a matter of fact. We were truly glad to learn that he was still in the land of the living, and we hope there are many more days in store for him. He became acquainted in Columbia in 1864, being a surgeon in the army, and he has visited here almost once or twice a year since, with the exception of the last three years. He has many friends in Columbia and Adair county, and should he again be permitted to visit us, he would be given a hearty welcome.

The New Automobile Law.

The new automobile statute is much more stringent than the old one. In addition to fines ranging from $10 to $50, it imposes imprisonment in the county jail for terms of five to thirty days, in the discretion of the court and jury. The maximum speed limit is twenty miles an hour. In the residence sections of incorporated cities and towns the speed must not exceed fifteen miles, and in the business section it must be reduced to ten miles. The registration number must be displayed in the specified position and must not be illegible from dust or mud.

Mr. Hardin Cundiff had the misfortune to lose three nice shoats last week. They got into the oat field and Mr. Cundiff's children undertook to run them out. They got too hot, all dying in a very short time. They would have weighed from 65 to 85 pounds each.

State officials and representatives of large fire insurance companies terminated Thursday at Louisville negotiations for settling the insurance trouble, the insurance men rejecting the last proposal of the State officials and holding out for repeal of the Zorn act of 1912.

Newton Atwell bonded Thursday night for his appearance at October Federal Court, Louisville, Messrs. W. R. Myers, J. H. Young, Charles Walls, and Dr. S. P. Miller signing the bond. Jasper Bunch and Wm. Dix were conveyed to Louisville.

Ruel Burton, who lives in the White Oak country, was before United States Commissioner T. C. Davidson, Friday, charged with selling liquor, and was acquitted.

Mr. W. T. Price, of this place, has grown a lemon which weighs one pound and nine ounces and measures 4.5 inches in circumference.

Twenty-six business houses and nineteen residences were destroyed by fire one night last week, at Hodgenville. The loss is estimated at $175,000.

Good shows at the Parlor Circle last week, and the reels for this week will be of special interest. Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Born, to the wife of J. R. Tutt Jr., Miltoan, a few days ago, a son.

A Career of Crime.

Bert Wing, whose career is known to a number of Columbians, has surrendered to the authorities and has been returned to the Frankfort penitentiary from which he escaped in 1903, having been sent up for life from Louisville. He belonged to a very prominent family, but he was guilty of many crimes. He became infatuated with a girl of the underworld, who was also a member of a prominent family at Greenville, Ky. The girl left her home, going to St. Louis, and while in that city Wing shot and killed Jodie Glenn, who lived in this town with his parents the first year of the reign of Columbia Christian College. For the crime he was sent to the Missouri penitentiary from which he escaped after serving a few years, landing in Louisville where he again met the girl, she having come from St. Louis. The girl went by name, Essie Davis, but her real name was Reeves. One night they quarreled and Wing stabbed her to death. He escaped, but was caught, tried and given a life sentence. Had it not been for the girl's father, Judge Reeves, who appeared before the jury, saying he would be satisfied with a life term, a verdict for the death penalty would have been rendered.

Wing is now past 60 years old and says he surrendered because he was tired of the life he was living. Hon. J. Rumsy Wing, who was a prominent lawyer of Louisville, was a brother of Bert Wing. He was in Center College, Danville, at the same time was Judge H. C. Baker, of this place. He was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President Lincoln, dying a short time after returning from that country. Col. W. C. P. Breckenridge married his widow.

Weighing Mails.

The annual job of weighing and counting all mail dispatched over rural and star routes began last Thursday and will continue for sixty days, until June 15th. During this time every piece of mail dispatched as above will be classified, weighed and counted, and the rural carriers and employers in the various postoffices will have this much extra work in addition to their regular duties. Work at Columbia postoffice is enormous.

Clean Up Days.

At a joint meeting of the Town Council, and the County Board of Health, Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9, were set apart as cleaning up days in the town. Every citizen is directed and expected to clean up his premises, looking particularly after the back yards, privies and cellars. Leave no tin cans lying around as breeding places for mosquitos. The Town Marshal and the Health officer will see that these suggestions are carried out. Put the trash in barrels or boxes, and wagons on Saturday will haul them away.

Machine Shop.

I have purchased the W. A. Helm outfit, and am located at his former shops on Bomar Heights, Columbia, Ky. I am prepared to do all kinds of work in the way of repairing machinery. I also furnish repairs, in either brass or iron fixtures.

I am fully qualified to do all kinds of work. I solicit your patronage. 26-2m J. M. Kearnes.

Wool Wanted.

We pay the highest cash price, Campbellsville Manufacturing Co., Campbellsville, Ky., or we will manufacture your wool as you direct. 23-2m

LOST, Ball and Spindle with the Jacob staff mountings. T. C. Faulkner.

The combination proposition, five papers for a small sum of money, now running in the News, will be out the 28th of this month. Now is the time to take advantage of the offer.

Under the management of Mr. C. Brent Roberts the Taylor County Enquirer is steadily improving. It takes an editor who is a practical printer to bring out the kinks.

Next Thursday night will be the regular meeting of Columbia Lodge, No. 230, I. O. O. F. All members should attend, as there will be work.

Mr. Jas. C. Popplewell has been appointed postmaster at Russel Springs. He is a merchant and a popular business man.

Held to Federal Court.

Newton Atwell, Jasper Bunch and Wm. Dix, all charged with selling liquor unlawfully, were before United States Commissioner T. C. Davidson, last Wednesday and Thursday. The proof was conclusive, and they were held to await the action of the Federal grand jury, the court to convene in Louisville, next October. Bond in each case was fixed at $200.

Railroad meeting in the court-house 7:30, Friday evening. Be there.

Removal of a Landmark.

The little red brick on Burkesville street, across from Mrs. Marcum's residence, the property of Dr. B. F. Taylor, is now being razed, Mr. W. T. McFarland superintending the work. It is one of the oldest houses in Columbia. Dr. Taylor will build on the same lot a large two-story frame, the building to be completed before fall.

Large Concern.

With an authorized capital stock of $100,000, the Comer-McClellan company, a concern for the purpose of importing and wholesaling notions and furnishings, was chartered Wednesday morning by Secretary of State R. R. Sneed. Business with the new company will begin at once, the concern having taken over the Park-Corner Textile company at 330 Public square. Following an invoice of stock, business will resume by the newly-organized company at the old stand.

In connection with the importation and wholesaling of notions, the new company will later manufacture a number of articles for distribution through their wholesale house.

The officers of the new company are as follows: R. W. Comer, president; C. E. McClellan, first vice-president; M. B. Comer, second vice-president; W. W. Harlin, secretary, and W. L. Pierce, treasurer.

Mr. Comer is favorably known to the merchants of this city, where he has been engaged in the wholesale business for a number of years. Mr. McClellan, first vice-president, and buyer for new company, has for several years been engaged in the retail business at Burkesville, Ky., and is an experienced judge of merchandise. The other officers and directors of the company are prominent business men of Nashville.—Tennessean and American.

Mr. C. E. McClellan, the first vice-president of the above named corporation, is favorably known to great many Adair county people. He has been conducting a general mercantile establishment at Burkesville for several years, and by fair dealing has made many friends. The Messrs. Comer are natives of Glasgow, Ky., and the new concern will doubtless command a large Kentucky trade.

Meet us in the court-house Friday evening at 7:30, p. m.

Will Not Teach Next Year.

Miss Elizabeth Farleigh, of Richmond, Ky., who has been a very efficient teacher in the Graded School, this place, for the past two years, has tendered her resignation to take effect at the close of the term, and will not teach next year. She is very popular with the school and has made many friends during her two years stay in Columbia. Upon taking her departure from our midst, she will carry the best wishes of the entire community.

All parties owing me on notes or account please call at Gill & Waggener's store and settle, and oblige,
Frank Sinclair.

Mr. Duke at Gradyville.

A large crowd was at Gradyville last Sunday to hear Mr. H. Z. Duke, of Texas, who is a layman, and who is out in the interest of the Lord. Some years ago he started a 5 cents store and he now owns twenty-seven, no article valued over 5 cents is sold at, any one of them. Four or five years ago he discovered that he was worth one hundred thousand dollars and he decided that was all the money he desired, and since that time he has given every cent he has made for the spread of the Gospel. He wants no more money for himself. The people of Gradyville showed their hospitality—dinner on the ground for everybody.

Monday afternoon a fair audience greeted Mr. Duke at the court-house and listened to an interesting talk. Giving to the Lord was his theme. Monday night he spoke at the Presbyterian church, his talk being along the same line. He is a very zealous man and evidently is doing much for his Master's cause.

In consequence of rain, only a small audience was at the Presbyterian church, hence Mr. Duke will speak in the same building this (Tuesday) night. Every body invited.

In these stirring times men who want to keep in touch with current events should read the Review of Reviews. The magazine is edited by some of the best writers in the nation. Among the pictures of noted men that will be hung on the walls of the reception room, State Capitol building, will be one of Gen. Frank L. Wolford, who died at his home in this place eighteen or twenty years ago. No man in war was more valiant, and in peace, he had not an equal upon the stump.

Born, to the wife of W. T. Price, on the 24th of April, a son.

District Conference, Columbia District.

District Conference, Columbia District, will convene here May 28-31, Rev. S. K. Breeding will preach the opening sermon first day at 11 o'clock, a. m. The Conference will meet for organization May 28th, at 9 o'clock, a. m.

Gets Big Verdict.

W. C. Cundiff, circuit clerk of Casey county, was awarded $4000 damages in the Boyle Circuit court yesterday afternoon for being put off an excursion train at Ludlow last August. The case was one of the most stubbornly contested that has been tried here in years. An appeal will be taken to the Court of Appeals. An important feature of the case was the decision of Judge Hardin that the law passed by the Legislature creating the office of railway policemen is unconstitutional.—Danville Advocate.

Death of an Old Lady.

Mrs. Rachel Montgomery, who was the mother of Eld. J. Q. Montgomery, died at her late home, near Ozark, this county, last Saturday afternoon. She was quite an old lady and was highly respected for her many Christian virtues. She will be greatly missed, not only by her sons and daughters, but by every body in the neighborhood. The funeral services were conducted Monday morning and the interment was in the family burying ground. Many friends attended the last sad rites.

Base Ball.

The Lindsey-Wilson base ball team met with two defeats last week, but they are not ashamed of the record made.

On Friday they played the St. Mary's club, on the grounds of the former, and the result was 8 to 7 in favor of St. Mary's. Saturday they played Middleburg team at Hustonville, which terminated 2 to 1 in favor of Middleburg.

For Sale.

Nearing the Century Mark.

Mrs. Easter Dohoney, mother of Mrs. Nannie Flowers, with whom she makes her home, this place, was ninety-six years old last Saturday, the 2nd, inst. Her general health is good, and her mind is active. She is evidently the oldest white person in Adair county. The occasion was duly celebrated and the old lady received a number of presents.

Mr. Scott Montgomery exhibited at this office last Thursday, what is said to be an Indian hen. It is a water fowl and they are said to be common on Cumberland River. This bird was caught by Mrs. Montgomery, who discovered it in her poultry yard. It is deep blue in color, white bill and web-footed. We do not know of such a bird ever before being on exhibition here.

We do not mind publishing short obituaries, but when a writer takes up four or five pages in telling about the dead, we will have to reject the manuscript. Obituaries are of interest only to the family of the dead. Furthermore, if The News has already mentioned a death, it is unnecessary to publish a second account.

There will be a public debate at the Lindsey-Wilson next Saturday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. A live question will be discussed and those who will attend may expect to be entertained.

Hon. Owsley Stanley spoke at Jamestown last Friday. The speaking had not been well advertised, hence a small crowd heard him.

The new Christian church at Tabernacle, on Green river will be dedicated the fourth Sunday in June. Eld. J. Q. Montgomery will preach the dedicatory sermon. Dinner on the ground.

All the material for the Plum Point Bridge arrived last week, and the work of replacing the structure commenced Monday morning. It will take but a few days to complete the job.

Long Life Family.

Mr. David Bryant, who lives in the White Oak section, was in Columbia a few days ago and gave us the following concerning the history of the family from which he sprang: He is a son of David Bryant, deceased, who was the father of nine sons and two daughters by his first and only wife. They were all born and reared in Adair county, all of the nine sons living at this time, and all of them are living in the county but two, who reside in Taylor county. They are all in reasonably good health, and their ages range from 58 to 80 years old. One of the daughters died some years ago. The other one is enjoying good health.

Church Improvements.

The interior of the Methodist church is now undergoing repairs. Metal ceiling is being put on and the walls are to be repapered and the woodwork repainted. When finished it will present a handsome appearance. The building needs to be painted upon the outside, but we are not advised as to whether or not that will be done at this time.

Ice Cream.

Miss Mollie Caldwell and Mrs. Geo. Wilson will serve ice cream and sherbert in the Hancock Hotel on Burkesville street, Saturday, May 9th, from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 o'clock in the evening. Everybody invited.

When you meet a man he is either hunting a load of corn or a milk cow and it goes to show that there is plenty or he would not be out, as corn and cows are higher than ever was known since the war of 1861-'5, and Wilson president too—wonder what is the cause—Tariff? "Please answer some one.

Dr. L. D. Hammonds mother, wife of Jonas Hammonds, died Sunday, after a long illness of cancer. Dr. stayed with her for the last month. Child Cross? Feverish? Sick?

A cross, peevish, listless child, with coated tongue, pale, doesn't sleep; eats sometimes very little, then again ravenously; stomach sour; breath fetid; pains in stomach, with diarrhea; grinds teeth while asleep, and starts up with terror—all suggest a Worm Killer—something that expels worms, and almost every child has them. Kickapoo Worm Killer is needed. Get a box to-day. Start at once. You won't have to coax, as Kickapoo Worm Killer is a candy confection. Expels the worms, the cause of your child's trouble. 25c. Obituary.

Last Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, Robert Aaron died at his home near Esto, Ky. He was born Feb., 29, 1856, died April, 15, 1914. He was a victim of consumption. He bore his suffering with patience and was ready and waiting when the end came. He professed faith in Christ about 35 years ago, joined the Cumberland Presbyterian church, at Grant's school-house, in which he lived a consistent member until his death. He was born and reared in Adair county and was married to Martha Lawless in 1880. To this union there were four children born, Elmer and Ezra Aaron, Mrs. Pink Holt and Mrs. Zura Marcum. Mrs. Marcum preceded him to the grave several years ago. We would say to the bereaved family, weep not, as those who have no hope, for uncle Bob is not dead, only sleeping, and is waiting, beckoning thee to come to the other shore, where there will be no sad parting.

The community has lost a good citizen, but God knows what is best. He alone can heal your broken hearts. Look to him in this sad hour. "Only look and you shall live."

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. P. Sullivan after which the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground to await the resurrection morn, when the silver trumpet shall sound and the dead in Christ shall rise. There was a large number of relatives and friends present to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased.

Cheer Up.

When things ain't going right with you, and you can't make them gee; when business matters look real blue, and you fear bankruptcy; when cobwebs gather on your stock, and customers are rare; when all your assets are in hock, don't cuss and tear your hair. Just listen to this sage advice, and take it if you are wise; give every article a price, and then go advertise.

And advertise from morn to night, don't overlook a day, and soon you'll see the world grow bright, and things will come your way. Invest in good publicity, and fortune you will greet and in a little while you'll be way up on Easy street.—Luke McLuke.

Was Guest of Gen. Villa.

Col. Phil T. Chinn, who left this week for New York, whence he will sail for France, who recently returned from Jaurez, Mexico, when he had a string of horses at the track, while in Lexington related several stories of his experience in that revolution ridden country, which shows the manner of man General Villa is.

While in Jaurez, Col. Chinn made the acquaintance of the rebel leader and became quite intimate with him. He told a story here which illustrated how the bandit general ruled with an iron hand and how promptly he deals with offenders.

At the time Col. Chinn was at Jaurez a large number of rebel soldiers were in and around the town, and these frequently became intoxicated. Strict orders were issued by Villa to the saloon keepers not to sell the soldiers intoxicants, but later the violation of the order became flagrant and many of the soldiers were found on the street in a drunken condition.

By the order of the rebel chief the drunken soldiers were arrested and put under guard. They were forced to tell where they obtained the intoxicants, which resulted in the arrest of twenty-eight saloon keepers. Instead of being permitted to go on with their business, as has been the case in certain places not a thousand miles from Lexington, these twenty-eight were taken out and promptly shot to death by Villa's orders. Col. Chinn received an invitation from the Rebel leader to attend the execution, but declined to be a witness to the slaughter.—Lexington Leader.

Hog Wallow news.

Raz Barlow became stage struck this week and followed a magic lantern show to Tickville.

One of Isaac Hellwanger's dawgs followed him to church last Sunday and went inside, but got up and walked out before the sermon was half over.

Tobe Moseley's onion patch and Miss Fruzie Allsop's hat are showing signs of spring.

It may be the style now for women to have their backs photographed, but Miss Hostetter Hocks says the fellow that gets a tin type of hers will have to do so behind her face.

Poke Eazly was seen at the Hog Ford church last third Sunday with a new pair of pants on. They are his old ones fixed up, but this fact is not generally known.

Miss Fruzie Allsop has been chosen secretary of the woman's organization of the Dog Hill church. She has bought a pen and ink and will enter actively upon her duties at once. Miss Allsop has long had a desire to enter the field of literature and is proud of the opportunity that now confronts her.

Ellie Hellwanger is being watched with curiosity, as he has not had on his Sunday necktie in over a month. It is rumored that he has given up all hope since Raz Barlow received his new derby from Sears & Roebuck.

After having read the almanac through two or three times it is still hard for Columbus Allsop to understand what patent medicine has to do with the condition of the weather.

Prof. Sap Spradlin got him a memorandum book about a month ago and carries it around with him for the purpose of setting down all his thoughts that amount to anything. So far he has not had occasion to make any notations.

Fletcher Henstep came in this morning with the report that spring had arrived at Bounding Billows, and that everybody was beginning to dig fishing worms. Spring will probably reach Hogwallow about day after tomorrow as we are only 8 miles west of that place.

President Wilson.

Men of honor and ability may differ from President Wilson's views on one or more public questions, but regardless of party, they do not differ as to the fundamental honesty and sound Americanism of the man. The President's open, frank and manly course has won for him a place in the hearts of the common people of the country that has been occupied by no chief executive since James Monroe. They trust him because he shows them he is not afraid to trust them, and they can see that he is right on most, if not all, of the great questions he has laid so openly before the country. They know that their President is right at heart and earnestly trying to do what is best for the whole people and what further counts for a great deal, they are taken into his confidence and they know what he is doing. The people like to know what is going on in our own government and are tired and disgusted with secret underground methods in public affairs. They like to be trusted in these things and they understand them much better than a lot of politicians think they do. This is one of the big factors underlying the almost universal confidence that the President enjoys.—Harrodsburg Herald

Obituary.

On the the 28th day of March, 1914, the Death Angel visited the home of Mr. George Shaw, of Waterford, Spencer county, Ky., and claimed for its victim his beloved wife, Nellie. She was a sufferer of consumption and had been sick about three months. Nellie Smith Shaw was born April 1st, 1878, and was married January 31st, 1898, to George Shaw. God saw fit to take her away, so He called her to come up higher. Mrs. Shaw leaves a husband, two children, three sisters, two brothers, a mother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Nellie has gone to be with her father who about seven months ago fell asleep in the arms of Jesus.

Her place is now vacant, but do not weep dear husband and children, brothers, sisters and mother, for Nellie is only asleep in Jesus to await the resurrection morn.

Death is no respecter of person, it comes to old and young alike. If you have given your heart you can face death without fear.

Her three months' illness was one continual fight to recover her health so she could stay with her husband and children, but such was not the will of the Lord, so she calmly committed herself to the Father's will. She delighted to read the Bible. Many thanks are given to friends who were so faithful during Nellie's illness.

Haunt of Train Robbers.

During the last 27 months there have been three train robberies on the outskirts of Columbia, S. C., and one daring hold-up within 30 miles of Columbia. The train robberies have been the work of "lone bandits."

In two of the train robberies in Columbia the registered mail was looted. The amount secured by the robbers has not been made public by the post-office authorities. In the latest train robbery in Columbia, which occurred a few weeks ago, the bandit chose the express car for his operations. He secured nothing of value.

All three of the train robberies have features in common. The two which occurred in December, 1912, and on March 5, 1914, are strikingly similar in all their details. In both instances the robbers boarded the trains at Royster when they stopped to get block orders. Both robberies happened about 10 o'clock at night. Each of the robbers was masked, held pistols on the mail clerks and took several folders containing registered mail. Both trains were brought to a stop between Royster yards and the Union station by a pull on the emergency brake cords by the robbers. Each of the robbers decamped for parts yet unknown when the trains reached Whaley street crossing near the southern boundary of the city. The similarity of the incidents attendant upon these two robberies suggests, of course, the men who perpetrated them were the same.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

We are authorized to announce ROLLIN HURT a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, in the Third district, subject to the action of the Democratic voters, expressed at the August primary.

In the race for United States Senator, The News announced its position six months ago. It has been the policy of this publication from its birth, nearly sixteen years ago, to fight no party man in a primary election, and that policy has been strictly adhered to, and we feel all the better for it. Some months ago we stated, that in our judgment former Governor Beckham was largely the choice of the Democrats of Kentucky for United States Senator and we are of that opinion still, basing our judgment on the expressions of the State papers that come to this office, and also from answers to questions made by traveling men, who make Columbia. This paper has stated time and again that Mr. Stanley was able and brilliant, and that he had made an enviable record in Congress and that he should continue to represent the Second district in the House of Representatives. We also stated that it was Mr. Beckham's time to be elected to the United States Senate, and that we did not believe he could be defeated. Our opinion has not changed, and we believe that the result of the State primary will verify said opinion. The Democrats of Kentucky believe that Mr. Beckham is entitled to the nomination, and they are going to show, that is, a large majority of them, their appreciation of his worth to the party by voting for him at the August primary. In our judgment Gov. McCreary's candidacy will hurt Mr. Stanley more than it will Mr. Beckham, and that the latter is not in danger; that his defeat can not be brought about by either of his opponents.

HON. ROLLIN HURT.

[Campbellsville News-Journal.]

In this issue of the News-Journal appears the announcement of Hon. Rollin Hurt, of Adair county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the Third Appellate Court District, at the August Primary election. We know this announcement will give pleasure to Mr. Hurt's many friends in this county, where he is so well known and so greatly admired for his integrity, his ability, his lofty courage, his pleasing personality and all those virtues and graces that make him a man indeed. Mr. Hurt has been a regular practicing lawyer for thirty years and his reputation at the bar is above reproach. Vigorous in mind and body, just and fair to all men, he has in him the making of a great Judge of our highest Court, and his friends in this county will rally to his support in August with enthusiasm and hearty good wishes for his success.

Mr. Hurt was born in Adair county which, until two years ago, was part of the Eleventh Congressional District that rolled up 20,000 Republican majority. Undismayed by this, however, Mr. Hurt was on the stump in every campaign battling for Democracy, and now, for the first time in his life, asks an office at the hands of his party. His opponent, Judge Hobson, has been Judge for sixteen years and has drawn from the State Treasury in that time eighty thousand ($80,000) dollars in salary and now asks for another term that will enable him to draw $40,000 more, or a total of $120,000 in salary.

Rotation in office is sound Democratic doctrine and we very much mistake the temper of the Democrats of the Third Appellate District if they fail in August to give Mr. Hurt a commission as Judge of the Court of Appeals, a position he can so ably and worthily fill.

UNDER CIVIL GOVERNMENT.

Vera Cruz, April 30.—Vera Cruz went back to civil government to-day under the laws of Mexico, administered by American officials. The civil government, however, remained subordinate to martial law while the work of restoring the municipal organization went forward.

Gen. Frederick Funston's brigade trooped off the transports and marched to the sandhill barracks and other quarters to relieve Rear Admiral Fletcher's bluejackets, who went back to the men-of-war. Funston established his headquarters in the barracks deserted by Gen. Maas and Fletcher withdrew his staff. The marine corps was distributed to work with the army.

Refugees continue to arrive and preparations are being carried forward for their departure. The navy transport Hancock today is lying at Puerto Mexico to take aboard those coming down from Mexico City. She will bring them here for transportation to New Orleans and other ports on the transports Monterey and Morro Castle.

Late last night the refugees from Mexico City had not arrived at Puerto Mexico. It could not be learned where they were detained, but it is known that in the surrounding country there is no evidence just now of Federal activity. Consul Canada's advices from Gen. Maas indicated the latter was far inland and close to Mexico City.

REPORTS NOT CONFIRMED.

Continued reports of renewed fighting at Tampico, that the battleships Utah and Florida were being held in readiness to sail and that the Dixie was loading with Marines for that port all lacked official confirmation. Official circles generally understood some ships might go to Tampico when the crews were full after the complete withdrawal of bluejackets from shore.

Vera Cruz, roused from a tropical drowse by the street battle and landing of foreign forces, had gone back to its lethargy, its dancing and its promenading through the plaza. There are no evidences here that Mexico is in the throes of a crisis, torn within and pressed from without. The shops, scarred by rifle balls, are busy again reaping the harvest of foreign invasion gains.

Women, who hid in terror of what they believed would be the consequences of the landing of foreign troops, walk again safely abroad. Men who held closely to walls in fear and danger of snipers, now go boldly about their business. The inhabitants have taken a new and enlightened view of the Americans. They have learned that the troops have come neither to loot nor ravish, but to govern not harshly, but well.

REVELATION TO MEXICANS.

The release of the prisoners from the water-soaked dungeons of Fort San Juan de Uloa, where many came forth blinded from years spent in darkness, was a revelation of the character of the attitude of the United States.

Mexicans of the better class openly express gratification at the restoration of order and the resumption of business. But aside from the fact that the troops are here Vera Cruz knows little and only wonders when the invaders will leave or will go to Mexico City.

The progress of mediation is entirely unknown here, but is discussed with animation. Opinion among competent observers is divided, some believing that Huerta by accepting the proposal for mediation in spirit as reported in Washington dispatches is playing for more time for a surprise as he did in the Tampico incident.

Shuttle trains continue to run from Vera Cruz to the point where Gen. Maas destroyed the railroad to the capital and there meet passengers from trains coming down from Mexico City. Consul Canada says that practically all Americans in his district have been accounted for.

COMMENDS HIS MEN.

Rear Admiral Fletcher's order for the withdrawal of bluejackets, issued to-day, paid a high tribute to officers and men, not only for valor in action, but also for orderly conduct and the resourcefulness which resulted in the quick restoration of normal living conditions for the citizens of Vera Cruz. The Admiral personally thanked his command and declared:

"The highest honor is due those who gave their lives in the service of their country."

Among the wireless messages reaching Rear Admiral Badger's flagship was one from the cruiser South Dakota, on the west coast. It said the cruiser had aboard sixty-five refugees from various points.

The Cuban gunboat Cuba is now anchored with the American fleet. Her last visit here was made when she came to take away Francisco Madero, after he had been deposed from the presidency by the Huerta-Felix Diaz agreement. The killing of Madero prevented Cuba from carrying out her mission.

Gov. Kerr has been ransacking the civil offices, examining books and accounts and interviewing men formerly connected with the civil government, one result being the discovery of stamps representing 320,000 pesos. The stamps continue in use. An order is to be issued that all business done since April 21, in order that they may be subjected to taxes accruing since the occupation.

HOSPITAL IS ESTABLISHED.

The first military hospital was established to-day in the preparatory school building. It is in charge of Surgeon General Williams, of the Third field hospital. Dr. John Guiteras, of the marine hospital service, is here in charge of quarantine work.

The 700 sacks of mail about the disposition of which Rear Admiral Fletcher asked Washington, have been delivered to the Mexicans beyond the gap in the railroad line. This done on instructions from Washington.

Ensign Maddox, wireless officers of the battleship Utah, who has been connected with the signal service ashore since the landing of the Americans, has demonstrated the feasibility of operating wireless from a train. With the apparatus aboard he went on one of the trains being operated to the point where the track is torn up and interchanged messages with the ships and shore stations.

The scouting work of aviators over and above Vera Cruz continues, but the men in charge are not permitted to carry their investigations far into the interior.

Roy Wilson, ten years of age, possibly regarded by his parents, themselves refugees, as lost, is here in charge of Consul Canada and a few American women who have undertaken his care until he rejoins his parents. Roy lived in Tampico and went to the capital on a visit. He became separated from his friends, but arrived here safely on one of the refugee trains. It was learned that his parents meantime had been taken out of Tampico with other refugees and sent to Galveston.

NEWS FROM MEXICO.

Mexican soldiers demanded surrender of the waterworks at El Tejar, which supplies Vera Cruz, and several shots were fired. General Funston sent reinforcements to the scene and located three companies at the pumping station. The Americans are prepared to resist any movement made by the Mexicans.

A dispatch from Mexico City states that the resignation of President Huerta is expected at any moment.

A Mexican mob killed a German woman.

There are men in high authority at Washington who believe that the mediators will settle the trouble between United States and Mexico, while there are others who believe that war can not be avoided.

Vera Cruz is in full charge of the Americans and a civil government has been set up.

The wounded American soldiers in Vera Cruz are doing well.

From reports received at this office Mr. Hurt is making a most favorable impression all over this Appellate district.

Additional Locals.

There are only two men left in the county who served in the Mexican war in 1846-7—John Eubank, of this place, and James M. Campbell, who lives at Dirigo. Mr. Eubank is eighty-four years old and Mr. Campbell is eighty-five. The former is in fairly good health, the latter is a paralytic, and moves about with great difficulty.

Kentucky Crops.

At the present time the fruit crop in the state is promising. The wheat crop is the most promising in years. The outlook for corn and tobacco makes the outlook for business good. It is prophesied that if the corn crop for this year meets the average 10 year yield, that the prices next fall will be much lower on this cereal. The livestock industries are promising.

He was 78 years old. He was born in Adair county. When the war broke out he went with the writer of this letter into Co. G. 3rd Ky. Infantry. Louis made a good soldier. In Oct., 1864, we were mustered out at Louisville Ky. Louis came home with the small-pox, gave it to his wife and she died. His wife was Elizabeth Chapman. Rev. James Sullivan's wife was their daughter. Louis went West many years ago. Well, the roll call can come to Co. G. about 13 more times then the last call will be made. Now comrades we know our time is very short on earth, we must go. I hope we will be ready when the call is made for us to go.

Resolutions.

The following upon the death of G. G. Campbell, Breeding Lodge No. 516 F. & A. M.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has seen proper to remove from our midst our dearly beloved brother, G. G. Campbell, Past Master of this lodge, who departed this life April 21st, 1914, at the age of sixty-one years. He was a charter member of Breeding Lodge No., 516 F. & A. M., in which he lived a true and faithful member until death, having filled every station in the Lodge. Therefore be it,

Resolved, That, in the death of Bro. Campbell, our Lodge has been deprived of one of its most useful brothers, the family a kind and loving husband and father, the community a useful citizen, whose charity knew no limitations, and who was at all times ready to assist a worthy and distressed brother.

Resolved, That, we extend to his wife and children, his aged father, brother and sisters, our sincere sympathy in this, their dark hour of bereavement.

I will try again to write a few lines. I have been here six weeks and I find the longer I stay the better I like. This is good farming country. It has the sandy land. I work for Mr. W. S. Kuhner, and we are getting along fine farming. Will soon be ready to plant corn. There is lots of typhoid fever in this section at this writing, but I am thankful to say that I have not taken it yet. Well, this is a nice place at Mr. Kuhner. There are only one child, a girl, Miss Louise. She is 14 years of age. She is good looking, but not good looking like the Kentucky girls. Ha ha. This place is 3 miles of Toledo, so I go in town every Sunday. I see lots of my Kentucky friends and lots of my Iowa friends, and I must say they dress fine. The ladies look like they were great big beautiful dolls. I don't want to look at them much. I want to have good eyes when I get back to old Kentucky next Christmas. Ha ha. So I had better close wait and write more some other time. So good wishes to all my Kentucky friends.

Remedies for Poverty.

The treatment of poverty is absorbing the attention of the National Probation League, and it ventures to say that two remedies have been discovered, which, without giving the league away, are as old as time—i.e. Removal of the cause and the other to alleviate by the sweetening of the results. This is called by the league the great modern idea, and it took a great deal of modern energy and thought to figure it out. Idleness begets poverty as well as ungodliness, but a man may have a good job and still be in the grasp of poverty. Inability to manage, extravagance and evil habits cause greater poverty, hardship and worry than anything else in the world. If the league can remove the causes of these it will have accomplished the miraculous.—Portsmouth Times.

Atlas Peck, who has had smallpox for the past three weeks, was in town Saturday evening shaking hands with his many friends.

A Remedy No Family Should Do Without

No matter how healthy a human being may be it is safe to say that not many months are passed without some obstruction of the bowels, in other words, constipation, even if only temporary. The bloating, the dull feeling may start after the evening meal. If a laxative is not taken that night it is certain that sleep will not be sound, and you will awaken unrefreshed.

Hence, it is important for you and for all the members of your family that a good, reliable laxative be always kept in the house for just such emergency. It is sure to be needed, and when needed you want it at hand. No family that is careful of its health can do without such a remedy. But the question of which remedy to have on hand is also of vast importance.

The laxative most highly recommended by the majority of intelligent Americans as being best for babies and grownups is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

It is a liquid laxative- tonic, mild, and never grips, is effective on robust people and can be given with safety to an infant. Children like it because of these gentle qualities and because it is pleasant to the taste.

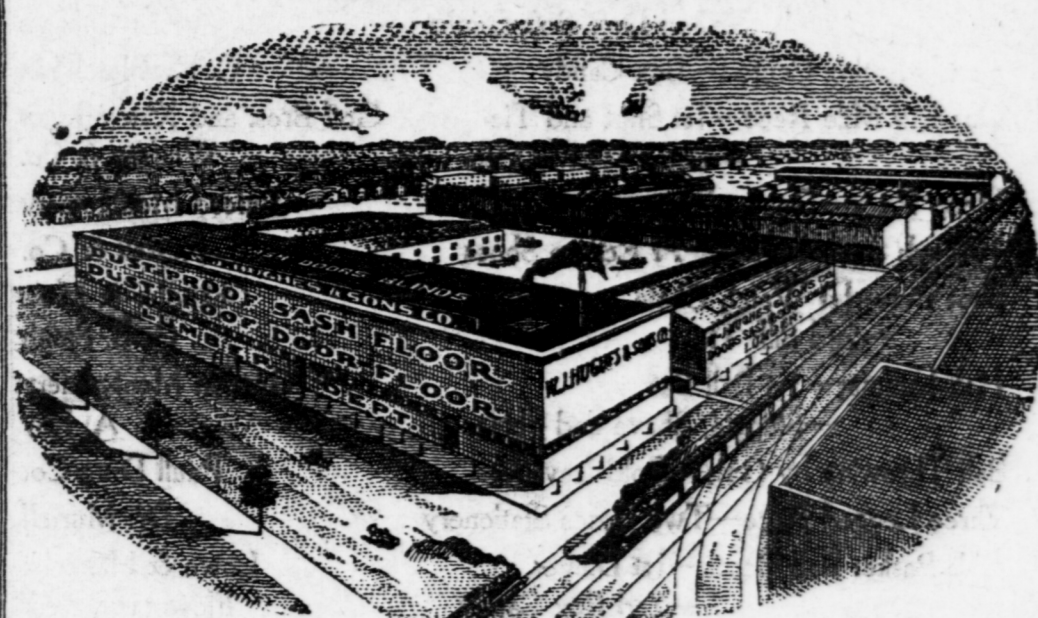

It is the best all-around remedy you can have in the house for any disorder of the stomach, liver and bowels, and many people like R. H. Morgan, Price, Tenn., and Mrs. H. C. Davidson, Wart- race, Tenn., say they would as soon be without the necessities as without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

We would be pleased to send the Daily State Journal, Frankfort, from now until the first of April for 50 cents. Or better still we will furnish the Adair County News, one year and the Daily State Journal until April last for $1.25. If you want to keep in touch with the doings at Frankfort while the Legislature is in session, you should have the State Journal.

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst.

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

A man who lives right, and is right, has more power in his silence, than another has by his words. Character is like bells which ring out sweet music, and which, when touched, accidentally even, resound with sweet music.

Let us not forget that life is brief; that time hurries; and that what we do to make our memories of earth beautiful in heaven, and heaven itself more populous than ever, must be done at once.

Courage for the great sorrows of life and patience for the small sorrows, and then, when you have accomplished your daily task, go to sleep in peace. God is awake.

Obituary.

In the death of Bro. A. T. Sherrill, Gradyville Baptist church has lost one of her most faithful members and Adair county one of its noblest citizens. The greater part of his life was spent on his farm near Gradyville, Ky., where he died in Mch., 1914, aged sixty-seven. Early in life he was converted and joined the Baptist church. He was one of the charter members of Gradyville church and was made a deacon, serving faithfully in that capacity till death. He loved his church and was one of the most loyal members both to church and pastor.

It has been my privilege to know him ever since our boyhood days. Never will I forget the instruction given to me while a penitent seeking the salvation of my soul. He was a good man, citizen, husband and father. He was honest, upright, clean nothing smutty was ever heard to pass from his lips. He was wide awake and alert to the best interest of both his church and community, lending his influence and energy to every movement for advancement.

He was married twice and the father of several children.

As his pastor I want to bear testimony to his faithfulness and devotion and express my feeling of personal loss at his going and convey to the family my tenderest sympathy in their sorrow. His remains were buried in the Yates graveyard, after funeral services by his pastor.

W. S. Dudgeon.

From Oregon.

Lowell, April 27., 1914.

Editor News.

Thinking perhaps that some of my friends would like to read a letter from the State of Oregon, and from a former Adair county girl, and one time a correspondent to the News from Joppa, I will try to write a few lines for publication, that is, if it is of enough interest to publish.

First, I must tell a little about my trip out here and the beautiful scenery along the way. We left Columbia Sept. 26th, 1913, and landed in Kansas City on the 27th, and spent a week visiting my sister-in-law. There was the largest crowd at the depot I believe I ever was in. It looked like every body was going somewhere and taking somebody with them. While in the city we went to a fashion show on living models in a big department store which was very nice. Also visited the stock yards where we saw hundreds and hundreds of cattle in the pens waiting for buyers and they were being bought fast. It certainly was a pretty sight, as far as one could see in one direction were pens of cattle. We also saw the house that the famous Jesse James once occupied. It is a brick building and has once been a very pretty house, but is not so now. Negroes live in it at the present time.

We left Kansas City Oct. 5th and got to Eugene, Oregon, on the 9th. We passed through some of the finest farming lands in the U. S. In Kansas and Missouri the land is very pretty and level, and in Nebraska as far as the eye can see it is the most beautiful farming lands that would delight the heart of any up-to-date farmer, and especially the Eastern farmers who have such rough, hilly lands to till. There were hundreds and hundreds of acres of grain still in the fields not yet threshed. When we struck Montana the ground was white with snow and still snowing to beat the band. It looked like winter all right, and when we got to Eugene the flowers were in bloom and the grass as green as in summer in Kentucky.

This is a fine climate, mild winters and pleasant summers. We get a breeze from the ocean which tempers the heat in summer. Most all kinds of vegetables are raised here except sweet potatoes, and they are raised in some parts of the state, but not where we live.

For fruits we have apples, peaches, pears, plums, prunes, grapes, gooseberries, raspberries, loganberries, currants, blackberries, both wild and tame, strawberries, and also wild gooseberries, raspberries, and currants. The grains are wheat, oats, and some corn. Lots of hay is raised here. The corn is raised to feed to hogs. You never see a horse or cow fed on corn. Oats and hay are what they eat. They raise horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, and goats here. There is quite a good profit in raising goats. The wool brings in quite a sum of money. The Angora goats are the kind that are raised here.

The past winter was so mild that I hardly knew it was winter. The pansies bloomed in the yard all winter and the grass in our yard was knee high all the time until it was mowed down. We only had a little snow and it melted almost as fast as it fell.

Will close with best wishes to the News and its readers.

Mrs. C. S. Mooney.

Health Factor in Success.

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by Pauli Drug Co. Ad.

Cold Storage Eggs.

To keep eggs in cold storage they must be unpacked and laid upon shelves or in trays, and kept at an even temperature, not falling below 33 degrees Fahrenheit, with a free circulation of air, which air should be absolutely sweet. No other products may be kept in the same room, otherwise the eggs will be affected, says a leaflet issued by the Board of Agriculture. By this method, provided that the eggs are new laid when placed in storage, they can be kept for many months in good condition, but great care is necessary in removing them for use, as a too sudden change of temperature causes rapid deterioration.

Sacred Trees.

The most famous trees in the world are the cedars of Lebanon growing in Syria. There is a single grove, containing about 400 specimens, which is rigidly preserved. Trees of all ages and sizes are to be found here, some tall and symmetrical; others, gnarled and knotted. Some of these latter are declared by experts to be a thousand years old. The patriarch of this little forest has a trunk measurement of 47 feet in circumference and a height of nearly 100 feet.

The wood of this tree, which was used by Solomon in the erection of his wonderful temple, has a sweet odor, is very hard and seldom decays. It is interesting to note that the American college at Beirut has adopted a cedar tree as their symbol and have pictured it on their seal.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

"My sister's husband had an attack of rheumatism in his arm," writes a well known resident of Newton, Iowa. "I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment which he applied to his arm and on the next morning the rheumatism was gone." For chronic muscular rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Sold by Pauli Drug Co. Ad.

Columbia Stock Farm

The above picture is a natural photograph of JUDAS the famous Purcheron Stallion. He will make the season of 1914, at my barn, one and one-half miles east of Columbia, on the Somerset road, for the sum of $10.00 to insure a living colt.

DESCRIPTION: Judas is a 6 year old purcheron, a steel gray, weighs 1700 pounds and is 16 1/2 hands high. He is a perfect model and a world beater. Remember that the Auto and such like modes of conveyance have lessened the demand for saddle and harness horses. But remember that they have nothing to do with the Farm and Draft horse. Remember that every farming country in the world wants the Purcheron horse. The leading mule producing States are raising mules from the Purcheron mares. See this horse before you breed, I will gladly show you his certificate of registration and Pedigree. Judas has proven himself to be a great breeder. His foals of 1913 are the best 1 year old colts ever seen in this country and his foals of 1914 are second to none. He is kind and well disposed.

Money due when colt is foaled or mare traded or removed from neighborhood.

All care will be taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

The Only Fifth Wheel Farm Wagons on the Market

The International fifth wheel (patent applied for) is worth a trip to town to see. Because it prevents the pulling up or pitching of the front bolster, it is one of the best improvements ever put on the farm wagon. It means no more bent and broken king pins—no more bent and broken circle irons—longer life for the wagon, and easier work for the horses. See the International fifth wheel on Weber and Columbus wagons.

If you will write to us, we will send you catalogues and information about this and other improvements on farm wagons and will tell you where you may see the wagons.
